NEWS RELEASE

TODAY WE PAY TRIBUTE TO
LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AND THEIR FAMILIES
ON CANADA'S POLICE AND PEACE OFFICERS'
NATIONAL MEMORIAL DAY

SEPTEMBER 25, 2022

OTTAWA, TODAY – Mr. Stéphane Ouellette, President and CEO, MNCTP, observed Police and Peace Officers' National Memorial Day in Canada. In addition, he expressed his gratitude to law enforcement officers and their families for their vital role, contributions, and for their ultimate sacrifice in serving and protecting our communities.

On September 24, 1998, the Government of Canada proclaimed the last Sunday of September 'forevermore' as Police and Peace Officers' National Memorial Day. This day was established to remember the men and women that have died in the line of duty protecting our homes, family, and friends.

Quote

"This day is a time to honour our men and women in law enforcement by pausing and reflecting on their level of courage, selflessness, and unwavering commitment to defending our freedoms, social values, and a collection of cherished traditions that affect and benefit all Canadians coast-to-coast-to-coast. Canada must always remain steadfast on the principles and virtues for which they fought and died to protect."
– Stéphane Ouellette, President and CEO, MNCTP
